

ANGELICA GAVALDON

BEST MEXICAN TENNIS PLAYER MEXICAN HISTORY

FORMER WTA PRO PLAYER RANKED TOP 30 IN THE WORLD

- Exhibition matches against Pete Sampras and Steffi Graf.
- Was named most impressive newcomer among Jennifer Capriati and Monica Seles.
- After retirement, she worked as a co-host in a national television show where she had her tennis segment.
- Did sports commentating Fox Sports, Televisa, and Univision.
- Had a health column for GB Magazine.
- Coached Federation Cup tennis team and was named team Captain in Mexico and leader of female tennis.
- 2023 was inducted into the Hall of Fame tennis in Mexico.
- Is PTR, USPTA, WCTA certified
- Was named coach of the year 2014 in San Diego California.
- Currently coaches, mentors and trains all level tennis players in Coronado California and travels doing tennis retreats around the world.
- Has mentored and coached junior players that have been given scholarships into Division 1 universities and have competed for the top in the world.
- Speaker at some events, including Hispanic heritage month for the USTA.

CAREER

- Represented Mexico in Barcelona and Atlanta Olympics.
- Defeated top-ten players in the world.
- Competed numerous times at Wimbledon, Roland Garros, the US Open, and the Australian Open.
- Was a quarter-finalist twice at the Australian Open.
- Played numerous exhibitions around the world in Tokyo, Spain, Uzbekistan, China and Mexico.